There's No Place Like Home

Mrs. Burton is a retired musician. Her love for music and the arts has never stopped her from doing the things she loves to do. Slowly, she has been suffering from Parkinson's and is getting worse day by day. Her son John has been caring for her for the last 2 years. John works full time and has a family of his own. Being the only child, John has no other family to turn to. However, his overwhelming responsibilities toward his family and his mom are causing him stress. He has made the decision to place his mom in a facility which will allow him to spend more time attending to his own needs. At A-1 Domestic, we are
